

THE MCCLAIN COMPANIES

TROY MCCLAIN

Troy is the CEO of The McClain Companies, a company that continues to grow his vision of Innovation, Inspiration, Direction and Capitalization of his organization to great heights. A seasoned entrepreneur with over 14 years experience in the financial and lending industry, he is instrumental in providing access to capital and consulting support to growth companies and those in distressed situations.

Today, Troy is an international speaker on a variety of topics, such as entrepreneurship, finance, marketing, underwriting, personal growth, and giving back to community. He has been honored by such figures as former U.S. Secretary of Interior, the Honorable Dirk Kempthorne, who awarded Troy the Seal of Idaho, recognizing him as one the true innovators in Idaho.

Troy's clients include Pinnacle Financial, a 6.8 billion lending institute, The Trump Organization, The National Board of Mortgage Brokers, The National Board of Realtors, California Board of Mortgage Brokers, and Idaho's Board of Realtors, among others.

His awards and accolades include being featured in numerous publications, including Fast Company, USA Today. Troy has been recorded as one of Idaho's history makers, and received other awards including the BBB's "Integrity Counts", Idaho Business Review's "Accomplished Under 40", and a Gold Medal from the International Special Olympics 2009 World Games Committee in recognition of his innovation and support in bringing awareness and compassion to the special needs of the athletes of the Special Olympics. Troy's enthusiasm, experience and determination, demonstrates the epitome of the American Dream.