It's That Time Again!

2010 IAHU Awards Banquet and Health Symposium

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope by now most all of you are signed up for the Awards Banquet and Health Symposium on April 14th and 15th. There is still time to register at www.iahu.org Please come out and support your State association; we're hoping this will be another record breaking year.

Congratulations to our three David Isern Award finalists: Judy Anderson, Mike Reilly, and Debbie Hetherington. This is a great honor. Finalists are determined first by nominations from IAHU members, then a committee of past David Isern Award winners go over the nominees and determine the three finalists, including the winner.

While at the Symposium, please take the time to visit the exhibitors and thank them for supporting IAHU. Without our exhibitors and State Sponsors, we would be unable to host this event.

In addition to everything going on, I happy to announce that YOUR association is once again a Silver Seal Certified Association (notice the logo to the right). Thank you all who helped use qualify for this distinction again!

One other item to mention—

just because the House passed the Health Reform Care bill, don't roll over and play dead. Now is the time to strengthen membership; recruit new members and keep up the HUPAC donations. Express this to non-members—do you want to fight this alone or have a nation wide association behind you? Have you ever thought about career insurance? This is the answer! Just a thought.

We'll see you in Boise on the 14th.

Respectfully,

Dana Drake

President

AWARDS BANQUET MUSICIANS—ARIA VIRTUOSI

Dr. Jennifer Sullivan

Jennifer Sullivan is currently serving as String Department Head with the Sun Valley Summer Symphony and ArtsWest School. She is also adjunct professor at the Northwest Nazarene University. Her studio has produced accomplished students who regularly gain entrance into higher educational institutions decorated with scholarships, awards, grants, and placement in symphonies and select chamber ensembles. Several of her students have won concerto competitions to perform as solo artists with symphonies.

Jennifer Sullivan has violin performance degrees from the Eastman School of Music (BM and MMPRL), in Rochester, NY, and from the University of Oregon (DMA). Some of her former teachers include Curtis graduates and solo artists: Kathryn Lucktenburg (Concertmaster Eugene Symphony and Honolulu Symphony), Charles Castleman (Prizewinner in the Tchaikovsky and Brussels competitions). She has worked closely with Isaac Stern, Itzhak Perlman, Maxim Shostakovich, William Preucil, and members of the Kronos, American, and Juilliard quartets.

Currently, Jennifer Sullivan performs with the Pan-American Trio alongside pianist Dr. Del Parkinson, and cellist Arturo Chavez. A former semi-finalist at the Fischhoff Chamber Music Competition, Jennifer Sullivan has held chamber music residencies with the Golden Gate

Philharmonic, Santa Fe Chamber Music Festival, Chamber Music Albuquerque, and the Treasure Valley Community College.

Jennifer Sullivan has made solo appearances with the Lake Arts Council Concert Series, Treasure Valley Symphony, Eastman Philharmonia, Eastman Chamber Ensemble, Eastman Film Collaboration, Idaho State Civic Symphony, and the Idaho Falls Youth Symphony. An experienced symphonic musician, Dr. Sullivan has won titled positions with the Eugene Symphony Orchestra, Corvallis Symphony Orchestra, San Francisco Concerto Orchestra, Pacific Chamber Symphony, Classical Philharmonic, North Bay Opera, West Bay Opera, Fredonia Chamber Players, Eastman Philharmonia, and the Erie Philharmonic among others.
